

THE FARMER.

Does the farmer dig the dirt?
Aye, aye;
Does he wear a coarse shirt?
Aye, aye;
And if his neck is brown
With the kisses of the sun,
Is he less a gentleman?
Nay, nay.

Does the farmer plow and sow?
Aye, aye;
Does he wield the spade and hoe?
Aye, aye;
And if his hand is hard,
And if his feet are roughly shod,
Shall we give him less regard?
Nay, nay.

Does the farmer work at all?
Aye, aye;
Labs he for great or small,
Aye, aye;
If from out the farmer's store
Comes the bread for rich and poor,
Should we honor him the more?
Yea, yea.

Give the farmer then his dues;
Aye, aye;
Though he serves, he's master too,
Aye, aye;
And may Heaven's blessings shed
Down upon the farmer's head,
Till we cease our cry for bread,
Aye, aye.

Congress.

The Providence Journal takes the following philosophical view of the doings of Congress:
"Congress deserves well of the country. Three weeks have gone by, and as yet no mischief has been done. No absurd act has been passed, no wholesome law has been repealed, the currency has not been tampered with; industry has not been assailed; the compromises as the constitution have not been disturbed, and nothing has been done towards getting us into a war."

A Kansas Emigration Society has been formed at Gainesville, Mississippi, at a public meeting there which adopted resolutions thanking the Missouri borderers for what they have done in Kansas. The object of the society, as stated by the resolutions, is to raise money to defray the expenses of emigrants from the South to Kansas, "to meet their foes at the ballot box, and, if necessary, with rifle balls."

How to "go it."—Go it strong in your praise of the absent. Some of it will be sure to get around.

Go it strong when you make love to a pretty widow. More people have erred by too little than too much in this particular.

Go it strong when you make a public speech. Nine people out of ten never take any allusion unless it cuts like a short handed whip or a rhinoceros cowhide.

Go it strong when you advertise. Business is like architecture—its best supporters are full columns.

Go it strong and pay the printer. Never grudge him his price. Remember it is he who brings customers to your very door, who otherwise would never discover your whereabouts.

"I thought you were born on the first of April," said a benedict to his lovely wife, who had mentioned the 21st as her birth-day.

"Most people would think so, from the choice I made of a husband," she replied.

DELICIOUS DOMESTIC SCENE.—Inquiring Lady.—"Oh, dear, do tell me how Charles declared his love?"

Expectant Wife.—"Well, Fanny, we were in the parlor, you know, and all at once he turned up his eyes so, I thought he was ill.—Then he turned them down and squeezed my waist, and asked me if I'd have him—and—and—"

Inquiring Lady.—"Well, dear—well what did he do next?"

Expectant Wife.—"Nothing, dear; but I said 'yes' and gracious how he kissed me! Then dear, I laid my head on his shoulder, and then we talked, dear. Oh! how I trembled. I thought I could never go through it!"

The mind is a certain vegetative power which cannot be wholly idle. It is not laid out and cultivated into a beautiful garden, it will, of itself shoot up in weeds and flowers of a wild growth.

A HUNGRY WIT.—A gentleman dining at a fashionable hotel, where servants were few and far between, dispatched a lad among them for a cut of beef. After a long time the lad returned and placing it before the faint and hungry gentleman was asked:

"Are you the lad who took my plate for this beef?"

"Yes, sir."

"Bless me," returned the hungry wit, "how you have grown!"

FOR THE GIRLS.

Men who are worth having, want women for their wives. A bundle of gew-gaws, bound with a string of flats and quavers, sprinkled with cologne and set in a carmine saucer—this is no help for a man who expects to raise a family of boys and girls on vegetables, bread and meat.

The piano and lace frame are good in their places; and so are ribbons, frills and tinsels; but you cannot make a dinner of the former, nor a bed blanket of the latter. And awful as the idea may seem to you, both dinner and bed-blankets are necessary to domestic happiness.—Life has its realities as well as fancies; but you make it all a matter of decoration—remembering the tassels and curtains, but forgetting the headstead. Suppose a young man of good sense and of course good prospects, to be looking for a wife, what chance have you to be chosen? You may cap him, or trap him, or catch him; but how much better to make it an object for him to catch you. Render yourself worthy of catching, and you will need no shrewd mother or managing brothers to help you find a market.

JOHNATHAN'S HUNTING EXCURSION.

"Did you ever hear of the scrape I and uncle Zeke had ducking on't on the Connecticut river?" Asked Jonathan Timbertoes while amusing his old Dutch hostess, who had agreed to entertain him in consideration of a bran new tin milk pan.

"No I never did—do tell it."

"Well, you must know that I and uncle Zeke took it into our heads to go a gunning arter ducks, in father's skiff; so in we got and skulled down the river; a proper sight of ducks flew backward and forward, I tell ye, and bime-by a few of them lit down on the marsh and went to feeding on muscels. I caught up my powder horn to prime, and it slipped right out of my hand and sunk to the bottom of the river.—The water was amazingly clear, and I could see it on the bottom. Now I couldn't swim a jot, so I sez to Uncle Zeke, you're a pretty clever fellow—jest let me take your powder horn to prime; and don't you think the stingy critter wouldn't.—Well, sez I, you're a pretty good diver, and if you'll dive and get it, I'll give you a primin'."

I thought he'd leave his powder horn, but he didn't, but stuck it in his pocket, and down he went; and there he staid.

Here the old lady opened her eyes with wonder, and a pause of sometime ensued, when Jonathan added—

I looked down, and what do you think the critter was doing?

Lord, exclaimed the old woman, I'm sure I don't know.

There he was, a sitting right on the bottom of the river, pourin out of my horn into his'n!

JOHN R. CARSON.

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in STOVES, TIN WARE, CASTINGS, Pumps, Lightning Rods, Straw Cutters, &c., First Street, Glasgow, Mo.

BEGS to announce to his friends and the public generally, that he has completed his arrangements for doing an extended business in his line, and solicits a call or orders.

COOK STOVES of the most desirable patterns, with all the necessary fixtures, always on hand. Extra vessels made to order, and all stoves sold, warranted.

PANCAKE AND OFFICE STOVES, for wood or coal, of all descriptions, on hand. All stoves sold by me will be delivered and put up without extra charge. I have the exclusive sale of the celebrated

CHARLES OAK COOK STOVES, believed to be the best in use.

Pumps and Lightning Rods. All kinds of Pumps and the necessary fixtures for sale, and will be delivered and put up, having a wagon and team for this express business. In the Pump line I fear no competition, and those wanting pumps are invited to leave their orders.

Lightning Rods warranted, perfect, and put up on short notice and reasonable terms.

TIN AND COPPER WARE. My stock of Tin and Copper Ware will be at all times full and desirable. Wholesale bills delivered at the purchaser's door.

CUTTING. I am prepared to put up gutters of any description, either in town or country, warranting the same. Having experienced and careful workmen, and a wagon for the business, orders will be promptly and satisfactorily filled.

Ask of my friends and the public in a call and fair trial. If they want anything in my line, and will give me a call, they will be well supplied.

Glasgow, June 14, 1855.

AUSTIN HOUSE, BY SAMUEL W. ROBERTSON, SOUTH EAST SIDE COURT HOUSE, HUNTSVILLE MO. September 27, 1855.

CLOTHING! CLOTHING! I HAVE just received and opened a very large and extensive stock of Fall and Winter Clothing, made in the most approved style and substantial manner. In my stock will be found in great variety, over coats, business coats, dress coats of various materials and colors, fancy and black cassimere and satinette pants; black, fancy and white silk vests; black and fancy shawls, and a great variety of other goods, all of the latest and best styles. Any person wanting a coat, pants or vest, will please call, as I am determined to suit cheap.

Oct 11 F. A. SAVAGE.

Prepared FOR FALL AND WINTER TRADE. HAVING now received our usual large stock for the present and approaching season, we are enabled to exhibit full lines in every description of Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods, HATS, CAPS AND BONNETS, Boots and Shoes, Hardware and Cutlery, China and Glass ware.

Family Groceries, Window Glass, Dry Stuffs, Salt, Wooden Ware, Furnishing Goods.

READY-MADE CLOTHING, and all other descriptions of Goods, which the wants of the country at large are likely to bring into demand.

In respectfully inviting the attention of our friends and the public to our stock, we assure them that unusual exertions have been made, (and we think successfully,) to present such an array of goods, in extent, variety and styles, as will enable customers to supply their wants, and gratify their tastes, with ease and economy.

It will at all times afford us pleasure to show goods, taking only such an amount of patronage as our friends will accord to us, on the basis of mutual benefit, and as we are willing to work at moderate prices, every article is offered at the Lowest Prices of the Season.

Purchasers of Goods from a distance, will find Fayette well supplied with all the goods we have on hand, and every house in town is anxious to extend the area of Fayette's business with the surrounding country. There is no place where the goods of the season are so cheaply sold lower than here. A considerable stock of goods, in now selling next door to us at Eastern cost, of course bargains can be bought, and by comparison of prices purchasers can satisfy themselves we are willing to sell at an small advance as could reasonably be asked.
